

To view our gallery of No-Dig photos, visit www.trenchlessonline.com

NASTT's No-Dig 2010 Chicago

Sanexen Enterprises drew attendees to its booth with this cool race car, owned by Fer-Pal.

Champagne glasses were raised at the ribbon-cutting to mark NASTT's 20th anniversary.

Marlin O. Gonzales was honored with the 2010 NASTT Chairman's Award for Outstanding Lifetime Achievement.

A group photo of all the students who assisted during the No-Dig Show, taken at the auction.

Former NASTT chairman Ray Sterling (left) with 2010 NASTT Chairman Chris Brahler at the Gala Dinner.

137 trenchless exhibitors filled the hall.

Perma-Liner conducts a live demo at the show.

NASTT marked its 20th anniversary at the show. In attendance were founding members (from left) Stephen Cordes, Tom Iseley, Norm Sirna and Richard Thomasson.

NASTT executive director Michael Willmets (standing) chats with attendees at the Closing Luncheon.

A time capsule in honor of NASTT's 20th anniversary will be opened in 2030. From left are NASTT's Angela Ghosh, Mark Hallet, George Ragula, Jack Burnam, Chris Brahler and Michael Willmets.

2010 Trenchless Technology Person of the Year Keith Hanks (left) was formally recognized for the honor at the Opening Breakfast by Trenchless Technology publisher Bernie Krzys.